CAMBODIA'S PRINCE SIHANOUK
